

ITALIAN FEST

The Main Street Event
Collinsville, Illinois

Italian Fest to honor “Featured Family”

The “2007” Italian Fest Committee would like to dedicate this year’s festival to an “Italian Featured Family”. This family will be chosen by the residents of the Collinsville area and must be from Collinsville or have strong ties to the city.

The chosen family will receive parking passes to the “2007” festival, will be featured in select print ads, honored on the Italian Fest website, honored at opening ceremonies, be parade marshalls for the “2007” Italian Fest parade and have a story board in their honor located in our information booth.

To nominate a family for the “2007” festival, complete the application below and mail to: Italian Fest Featured Family, PO Box 825, Collinsville, IL 62234. Winners will be notified by telephone.

Name of family you are voting for: _____

Contact person in selected family: _____

Contact phone number: _____

Brief history of the family: (Include how long they have been residents of Collinsville, meaning behind the family name (any name changes and adaptations), where in Italy they originated, when they migrated to Collinsville, what they have contributed to the City of Collinsville and any other significant information. Please also include a photo or several photos if possible. (Photos will be returned after festival)) _____
